and supplements or amendments thereto, if said agreement shall then be in force; if not, payment may be made to the Annuitant's Estate.

It is understood and agreed that the Company shall not be responsible for the application or disposition of the proceeds by the Trustee and that payment of the proceeds to the Trustee shall fully and finally discharge that Company from all liability under the Policy.

Part 4 Acknowledgments and Signatures*Deferred Nonqualified Annuity Contracts issued after January 18, 1985

The Internal Revenue Code Section 72(s) states the entire death proceeds of the contract must be distributed within five years of the owner's death. If the death benefit is not distributed within five years of the owner's death, the annuity account will be closed and it will no longer earn interest. We will hold the proceeds until we either receive the requirements necessary to distribute the death benefit or we are required by your state to consider the proceeds abandoned property. Abandoned property must be paid to the state. If the proceeds are paid to the state, you will be responsible for filing a claim with the state to collect the proceeds. This does not apply if the beneficiary elects spousal continuation, transfers to an inherited nonqualified stretch annuity or if they annuitize the contract.

The option to annuitize or transfer the death proceeds into an inherited nonqualified stretch annuity are only available within 12 months of the decedent's date of death and the first distribution must occur within this time frame.

IRA or 403(b) Annuity Contracts

If the deceased died prior to his/her required beginning date, and if you are a spouse beneficiary, you have until the later of (i) 12/31 of the year the decedent would have reached the required beginning date or (ii) 12/31 of the year following the year of death to begin distributions. In all other cases, you must distribute the minimum by December 31 each year, beginning in the year following the year of the decedent's death. It is your responsibility to both determine and make sure you distribute the required amount each year. Please see IRS Publication 590-B and your tax professional for further information.

Contract Provisions

Contract fees will continue. If this option is associated with a variable annuity contract, the investment of the funds will remain the same as invested in the original contract, subject to market fluctuation, until the entire sum of the death benefit proceeds are distributed.
