The Retirement Challenge

What are your goals and what challenges will you face?

Retirement is a new beginning, with many exciting possibilities, but also with many unanswered questions and potential challenges. At RiverSource, we understand that to live the life you envision, you need a solid financial plan to help put a confident retirement within reach.

Take charge of your retirement with a RiverSource[®] variable annuity.

Variable annuities can help you position yourself for a more confident retirement. They are long-term investment vehicles designed to help you through each stage of your investing life — as you grow your retirement investments, create a reliable stream of income to live more confidently in retirement, and prepare to share your legacy with the people and causes that mean the most to you.

Unlike other investments, variable annuities also offer guarantees – such as lifetime income and minimum death benefits. Our RiverSource variable annuity guarantees are subject to the continued strength and claims-paying ability of RiverSource Life Insurance Co. of New York. These guarantees do not apply to the performance of the variable subaccounts, which varies with market conditions.

Investment options for a confident retirement

Within your RiverSource variable annuity, you have two investing paths to consider:

With an optional living benefit

If you selected a living benefit for your RiverSource variable annuity, you can choose from the Portfolio Stabilizer funds. These funds seek to provide growth while reducing the impact of volatility in your portfolio.* Composed of underlying funds and a variety of other financial assets, the funds use a disciplined and dynamic investment strategy. The investment management expertise of Columbia Threadneedle Investments, combined with the research and insights of Mercer Investment Consulting, provide you with investment options that can help respond to changes in the market.

Without an optional living benefit

If you did not elect an optional living benefit, you can choose from over 90 funds encompassing a wide spectrum of fund families, investment types and strategies. You will have access to individual funds as well as asset allocation portfolios. Our individual funds offer everything from blue-chip domestic funds to international small-company funds to alternatives (see fund companies below). Our asset allocation portfolios are broadly diversified across asset classes, market sectors and holdings, and have built-in asset allocation and risk management to help meet your investing goals. You also have access to fixed account options that offer the security of a guaranteed rate of return.

If there is a group bill set up, the minimum is $25 for any frequency. Maximum issue age is 90. Age limits apply to the age of the oldest owner. In cases of a non-natural owner (defined as an entity other than an individual; for example, a trust or a corporation), the age of the annuitant is used.

Variable annuities are insurance products that are complex long-term investment vehicles that are subject to market risk, including the potential loss of principal invested. Before you invest, be sure to ask your financial professional about the variable annuity's features, benefits, risks and fees, and whether the variable annuity is appropriate for you, based on your financial situation and objectives.

A variable annuity subaccount may have a name, portfolio manager, objectives, strategies and characteristics that are the same or substantially similar to those of a publicly traded retail mutual fund. Despite these similarities, the variable annuity subaccount is not the same as any publicly traded retail mutual fund. Each underlying fund that a subaccount invests has its own unique portfolio holdings, fees operating expenses and operating results. The results of each variable annuity fund may differ significantly from any publicly traded fund.

RiverSource cannot guarantee future financial results, and there is no assurance that an annuity or optional rider will keep up with inflation.

Surrenders that do not qualify for a waiver may be subject to a surrender charge. Surrenders are subject to income taxes and surrenders before age 59½ may incur an IRS 10% early withdrawal penalty.

The Income Guide program is not a guarantee of income nor is it intended to preserve your principal, and your contract may run out of money. The Income Guide program is not investment advice.

As part of the Income Guide program, we provide you with information regarding your annuity income, but we do not determine whether to make adjustments to your withdrawal amount or investment allocation. You need to decide what changes or adjustments may be right for you, or whether to seek assistance of a financial advisor in making any decisions, based on the information provided and your given needs and circumstances.

Portfolio Stabilizer and Portfolio Navigator

The Portfolio Stabilizer and Portfolio Navigator funds are investment options within variable annuity products offered by RiverSource Life Insurance Company and RiverSource Life Insurance Co. of New York (collectively, RiverSource Life). The funds are managed by Columbia Management Investment Advisers, LLC (Columbia Management), an affiliate of RiverSource Life. Columbia Management, RiverSource Life and their affiliates may receive revenue related to assets allocated to these funds. Please read the product and fund prospectuses carefully before investing.

There is no guarantee that the Portfolio Stabilizer funds will achieve their investment objectives, and you could lose money. The funds may also be unsuccessful in managing volatility. By investing in a combination of underlying funds (among other investments), the funds have exposure to the risks associated with many areas of the market. The market value of securities may fall or fail to rise, or fluctuate, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. Foreign and emerging markets investing generally presents increased risk potential relative to US investments. There are risks associated with fixed income investments, including interest rate risk and the risk that the counterparty to the instrument may not perform or be unable to perform its obligations, including making payments. Investments in high-yield (junk) securities could expose the funds to a greater risk of loss of principal and income than an investment in higher quality securities. The use of derivatives introduces risks which are potentially greater than the risks of investing directly in the instruments underlying the derivatives. These transactions also subject the funds to counterparty risk; the risk that derivatives used to protect against an opposite position may offset losses, but may also offset gains; the risk that the instruments may be difficult to value; and the risk that it may not be possible to liquidate the instruments at an advantageous time or price. Investment in exchange-traded funds (ETFs) subjects these funds to the risks associated with the ETF's holdings. Fund investors bear both their proportionate share of the funds' expenses and similar expenses incurred through ownership of ETFs, as well as other underlying funds. For additional risk information, please read the fund's prospectus.

You should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the variable annuity and its underlying investment options carefully before investing.
